My Dearest:-

Tonight is so bright and lovely to go to bed, and so lonely - to stay awake, by myself, so I'll just write to you, (if I weary you with so much writing, tell me, dear.) - and read my love letter, - again, my dearest believe that you are talking to me. Beh, how I wish you were.

I enjoyed Grace's visit out here today so much.
she is a very attractive, loving - girl, with a big,

Warm heart - You would have laughed, today, if you could have over-heard a little conversation between, she, Jim Stone and I - we were talking about girls in general; - Grace said that you liked a girl like me, and Jim remarked, "Well I guess so, if you could have seen them out driving the other evening, you would have thought he liked her." We all laughed and Grace gave me a tight squeeze, and we walked on. She brought me a nice bag of oranges today,
- did you tell her to do it? - I imagine she is very much like Sister - ha ha, but ^{she is} ~~she is~~ more like me,

I missed your letter this morning but I'd let you spoil me, if you would, - Come every day and write to me. I'd be a "pig"; but -dearie, when I love, I am cranky I guess, but really, I don't care for anyone else, but just one I mean, really - desire or want, of course I can run on and joke, but this is not real heart pleasure, - see -

If you could know just how much I enjoy reading say "love letter", you would not grudge the few moments it took you the write it. Oh, but how it makes want to see you.

Darling, honest, I love you more every day - how did you change me so?

Oh, if I don't see you before, I'll just come down Wednesday to see about the "land flatting", wonder if you will be at the office.

I know I'll get another love letter tomorrow for today is Friday, day after Friday day, and maybe you won't have so much business. Oh, dearest, latter, business will not interfere with our talks will it? - And then talking hours will be at the close of the business of the day - Dear - do not think me forward in talking this way, it is just the way I feel and you caused me to look at the future as I do, - told me to.

I w^{rote} you sweet but sad little letter of the fourth, where you said, "I feel feverish and worn out to night" - and says part of the cause is "worrying about me". - I just fell so mean, to think, no matter if I did have worlds of Post office reports etc. (first of month) to make out, that I disappointed you.

But you have forgivin me, havin you, dear! —

I wonder if you love me just as much as I do you. Darling do you? It seems that my heart is almost bursting with a true pure love for my own G. --- oh it seems, tonight that I am the happiest girl on earth; life is worth living; that there is some one who appreciates and understand me who I can live for, and love with all my heart, with all my soul and with all my mind.

Darling, if I were to write to you until midnight all it would be, is, "I love you," and would ever

Kiss you ~~and~~ good night
Yours own,
Lillian.

Saturday a.m., and now
Oh, I just know
I'd get a love letter this mail.
Thank you, darling.
I'll be at home all day tomorrow and if I can't do better, just read my love letters again. Yours,

Lillian.
